I grew up in the Episcopal Church in Atlanta and North Carolina, serving as an acolyte and twice as a youth delegate to Diocesan convention. I graduated with a BSBA from East Carolina University and am still married to my high school sweetheart. We have two married children and four wonderful energetic grandchildren. I retired from business in 2012. I have been fortunate to serve on several vestries, three terms as Jr. Warden and three terms as Sr. Warden. I have also chaired finance committees and served as treasurer. In 2007 when Christ Church Savannah left the Episcopal Church, I was actively involved in the legal battle to keep our name, the right to claim our heritage, our building and our assets until we arbitrated settlement with our diocese in 2012. I have truly been blessed to be among the leaders of Christ Church Anglican, and as I am now substantially free of leadership obligations in our parish, I would be pleased to continue the stewardship of my time and talent as a member of Bishop Lebhar's standing committee.

I have been a member of Holy Cross Anglican Church of Tallahassee since its inception in 2006, having previously been a member of the Episcopal Church of the Advent in Tallahassee. I served 3 years on the Vestry of Holy Cross, and two terms as its Senior Warden. In October 2015 I retired as General Counsel and Vice President of the Institute for Intergovernmental Research, a Tallahassee nonprofit corporation, after 35 years of service. While I am interested in serving on the diocese committee, I agree that it will better serve the diocese if younger members are selected to sit on its committees (I am 70 years old).

I was born and raised in the Episcopal Church in Montgomery, AL, where I've practiced law for over 30 years. I'm married to the lovely Katie Daubenberger of Tulsa, OK, and blessed to have had 7 children to raise (3 young ones still at home). 25 years ago Jesus found me and has not let go. While in the Episcopal Church, I served nine years on the vestry and as senior warden. I've also chaired programs for evangelism, church expansion, and Cursillo. Trained by Francis McNutt, I served on the healing prayer team of my church many years, and also as a lay reader. Serving as a diocesan delegate for several years, I helped lead my church's efforts to keep the Alabama diocese in the orthodox faith, but ultimately the diocese rebuked those efforts and my church split. I learned much about Anglican church governance in this process. At ChristChurch XP, I'm active in the men's prayer breakfast and a covenant group, having also served on its healing prayer team. I feel called to further service for the church, hence this nomination.
